Grand Knight's Report

Retention and recruiting vital to our growth

by Steve Eggert, Grand Knight

(Excerpts borrowed from Deacon Randy McMahon).

In July I discussed our goals for this Columbian year, and stressed perhaps our most important one that we as a Council can accomplish: increased retention of existing and recently joined Brother Knights.

I recently emailed all of you a list of those Brothers, who for whatever reason, have not been attending monthly business meetings.

Find a Brother on that list that you know and contact him, asking him to join us at an upcoming event, first Wednesday business meeting, or just ask him if he gets our weekly emails.

Retention is every bit as important as recruitment, and warrants the same amount of attention and energy as identifying new members and inducting them into our Council.

If our Council grows, not only must we recruit new members but also retain the ones we have.

Once a member has joined, it is our responsibility to engage him, retain him, and encourage him to grow in his involvement and leadership.

Currently, for every two new members that join our Order, one

The scoop on the summer's big hit

by John Piccolo, PGK, Event Chair

Our fourth annual Family Night and Ice Cream Social was a huge success. This is probably the largest single dinner event in our Parish and the success was due to the team effort by our Brother Knights. Thank you guys for all your help.

There are too many Brothers to list here, but we will acknowledge you at the Sept. 7 business meeting. We served about 375, all squeezed onto the patio. No one was in a hurry to leave and the event lasted until dark.

It took a lot of work to plan and execute it. We started about six weeks before the mid-August event, advertising and buying supplies.

Instead of manning a ticket table for weeks on end, our one-weekend half-price sale made planning a snap.

Ricardo Teano, the Owens are Knight and Family of the Year

Ricardo now a pillar in Council 9487 and excellent recruiter

by Steve Eggert, Grand Knight

Several years ago, while attending a Council function in the parish hall, I had the pleasure of meeting a gentleman who had just joined our Council.

My wife Traci and I spoke with him the entire evening and learned a great deal about him, his native home and his family.

The more he spoke, the more I knew he would become a pillar of our Council and truly a great Knight.

Brother Ricardo Teano has surpassed my original expectations, as I'm sure he has surpassed everyone's, and that's why he is being recognized as our 2010-2011 Knight of the Year.

When PGK Bernie Laituri and I spoke about Bernie's choice, it was immediately clear why anyone in our Council would be hard pressed to name someone amongst us who has put forth a greater effort that has produced greater results.

As our head of recruiting and retention,

BUSY MAN: Ricardo Teano (third right) is seen at many Council activities with other Knights and their families Tom and Linda Haas (l) and Tom Murphy.

Ricardo has consistently produced top results and has been recognized as one of the top recruiters in the State. He consistently takes on the difficult task of recruiting new members to each of our exemplifications, and does so with a smile.

So many of our new members are so involved in our Council because of Ricardo's tireless efforts to engage them in our activities. He is at virtually every one of our functions, and lends a hand wherever and whenever he can. His efforts on behalf of our Council are the reason why we are consistently recognized as one of the best around. Congratulations Ricardo on a great year!

Versatile Dave, Jean Owens can do it all

Whether he's tirelessly setting up for a Business meeting, donating sage advice at an Officer's meeting, tirelessly coordinating our Scrip program, running the Pastoral Council, working in the Parish front office or assisting the Parish's Bereavement Ministry, Brother Dave Owens, along with his wife Jean, have made the success of our Parish and Council a primary mission in their lives.

At any event, be it Parish or Council, the Owens can be found, diligently working and supporting in any way they can.

Their efforts to coordinate our Parish's Scrip campaign for so many years raised thousands of dollars and I personally am grateful to Dave, now our Recorder, for his stewardship, efforts and advice as we considered a renewal of the Scrip program last year.

Jean has always been helpful in the front office to so many of us, and her smile and support of our programs are most appreciated.

As Dave progresses through the chairs of leadership in our Council, I know we will be in good hands for years to come.

Dave and Jean Owens

Congratulations again to Dave and Jean for their selection as Family of the Year.

Thanks, Steve.

Council to host beer booth at Orange Street Fair

Just wanted to remind our Brothers and Friends of Council 4922 that we will once again host the beer booth this month at the Orange International Street Fair. The booth is located on German Street.

This year the Fair will be Sept. 2-3-4, and we would like all Brother Knights to stop by for a free beer on us. Be sure to bring your KofC membership card.

Downtown Orange is old fashion and like going back in time.

Remember all tips we receive are donated to K of C Orange County Chapter Charities Camp Recreation. This is the same beneficiary as our Tootsie Roll Drive.

— John Piccolo, PGK

Knight of the Month

Richard Quinn

Richard and his lovely wife Carolyn have been essential members of our Council family since 2004. They have four children and four grandchildren and are extremely active in our Church.

Rich just finished up a stint of assisting and cooking for five weeks of Backyard Theology. He is also a Eucharistic Minister to the sick at Kaiser Hospital in Irvine and is being trained to take over at Hoag Hospital, right across the street.

Rich assists in the Christmas Boutique and has been a regular for putting up decorations for Easter and Christmas in the church.

Rich does not admit to being alone in these ventures. Like most of us, he relies on support and hands on participation from his wife.

What would we do without our wonderful supportive women who aid and support all our ventures? Please join me in saluting Rich Quinn as September Knight of the Month.

— John Ojeda, PGK

Family of the Month

The John Piccolo Family

Our summer months these days feel like they are crowded with so many events that the season passes by and is over before we know it.

Over the last several years, however, one event has stood out and has at least made my family's August that much more enjoyable: The Ice Cream Social. This event is the brainchild of our September Family of the month, The Piccolo Family.

John and his wife Penny started this event in 2008 and have grown it into the major summer happening for our Council. Every year they have put forth a yeoman's effort to ensure it's success. In addition to their efforts with the ICS, John has run the Basketball Free throw Contest for our Council for years and has contributed to our success in many other ways. Penny is always there to help and we are proud to have the Piccolos as our family of the month.

ID Drive is Oct. 21-22-23 at area stores

by John Ojeda, PGK
Program Chair

This year's ID Drive is scheduled for Oct. 21-22-23.

We are running into a few snags. Ralph's grocery stores has put restrictions in our path that hopefully can be worked out so we can solicit from their stores in the area.

I have contacted the state vice president of the drive to get permission from Ralph's because this is a state-wide issue.

Besides needing an increase in insurance to $3,000,000, there are other conditions.

We generally collect about $1,000 per store and last year we solicited at five Ralph's locations.

Corporate donations have been a mainstay of our drive but the current economy may take a toll.

I am asking all of us to think about what Bishop Johnson, the first Bishop of Orange County, charged the Councils of the county to do.

He asked the Councils to support camps for the Intellectually Disabled (ID).

I will be asking for your support to the best of your ability. I am not interested in being No. 1 one in the state but to think of continuing to change lives for those who cannot do it on their own.

Charity is the first tenet of the Knights, and this is a wonderful way to demonstrate that.

ICE CREAM:

We made several trips to various markets in the area to find the best deals.

The morning of the big day finally arrived and we had a crew of about five Brothers to pressure wash and prepare the patio.

About 3 p.m. Knights started arriving and worked non-stop for three hours just getting the tables, decorations, and food ready for the crowd.

By 6:30 there was a line stretching all the way to the Parish Hall while we feverishly flipped burgers and dogs and scooped ice cream sundaes.

We had a large table covered with toppings for everyone to select their favorites.

This entire time we had a kitchen crew led by Brother Michael Ulibarri working non-stop to supply the patio with delicious selections of salads, beans, condiments, and other items.

Then it was time to "let the games begin."

GK Steve Eggert, organized fun games for the children with plenty of prizes for all.

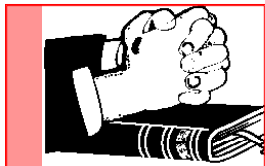

I would like to acknowledge the ladies who stepped up to offer so much assistance: Ana Martinez, Virginia Osley, Patty Piccuch, and Penny Piccolo.

Here is the magic formula:

Hamburgers	80 lbs
Hotdogs (Heb. Natl.)	200
Beans	11 cans
Salad	15 bags
Ruffles	15 bags
Salad Pasta	10 lbs
Soda and Water	175
Ice Cream	80 qts

There were 18 various flavors, but a lot of chocolate syrup

Dressings, ketchup, mustard, relish, onions, tomatoes, mayo, Ready Whip- A Lot, rounded out the complete menu.

existing member is suspended.

No matter how hard we try there will be those who don't pay their bills, move away and leave no forwarding address or, for whatever reason, decide the KofC is not for them. By far and the largest group suspended, however, are those who simply lose interest, drift away, and stop paying dues. It's that group where we must focus our attention. How do we assure that all members remain interested, active and engaged? Every Knight, regardless of the circumstance, deserves the dignity and consideration afforded by our Order, faith, Christian charity and belief in the Church. It is important that every member feel needed, important, and a contributing member.

Through our united efforts to retain current members and recruit new ones, we will continue keep our Council strong and growing.
